Apply on Indeed
The right number of jobs to apply for is going to be different for each person. Instead of focusing on the quantity of applications you submit, put your energy into screening each job carefully so you can craft high quality applications.

Considerations before you apply

- Read the job description from start to finish.
- Identify what makes this job posting attractive to you.
- Decide if you could do this job by reviewing examples from your background that demonstrate the required skills and qualifications.
- Take note of any instructions on how to apply.
- Once you’ve started the application, carefully read and answer any questions.
- Double check your responses before you submit.
